PRESENTS

Hate Crimes For First Responders

PURPOSE: This course will provide patrol officers and patrol deputies with information and skills necessary to conduct a preliminary investigation involving a hate crime. This course meets the new training requirements of Penal Code Section 13519.6. The class will maximize using of audio visual presentations and use of scenarios.

Students will learn about current hate crimes law (422 PC et al) and how to identify elements of a hate motivated crime. Students will identify common dynamics of hate crime victims and strategies for conducting an effective interview. It will include information about the origins of hate and an overview of various hate groups.

The class will use a case scenario for students to work with throughout the day. Students will discuss investigative techniques, evidence collection, report writing and documentation, and the impact of hate crimes on the community. Students attending this course should have at least completed a basic academy before attending this course.
